

Ines Gray
Paranormal Romance Author

Ines Gray is a paranormal romance author whose 20+ years in law enforcement provided both the discipline of professional writing and enough real-world darkness to fuel her fiction. After a 2008 mouthwash accident destroyed the only copy of her debut novel, she set aside her fiction writing. But she kept the damaged thumb drive for 14 years, attempting now and then to recover the lost manuscript and finally succeeding in 2022, when advancing technology enabled a full data recovery.

Her Watchers and Warriors series launched in June 2025 with Angel Redeemed, blending her fascination with horror movies, the Book of Enoch's fallen angels, and Buddhist concepts of reincarnation. The series explores forbidden romance between humans and immortals seeking redemption, with six books planned. She also has multiple installments in two spin-off series planned, the Nightshade Shifters Series and the Wicked Immortals Series.

Gray describes writing as her “therapy and escape hatch,” a creative outlet that evolved from earlier unsuccessful pursuits in quilting, woodworking, welding, and photography. Now, after three decades of marriage with her child grown, she's making up for lost time by crafting stories about supernatural beings who walk a fine line between damnation and salvation.

She's a self-described introvert who becomes animated when discussing fallen angels, dark prophecies, and paranormal romance tropes, supervised by her rescue cat with cerebellar hypoplasia.